BEAUTY IN BATHING SUITS.

Critical Sensible Observations of a Distinguished Anthropologist.

From the S. F. Exchange.

Already in the city stores the wily shopman displays the neatest and latest samples of ladies' bathing suits, which are to do the job for many a susceptible heart at the watering places this season. As a physiologist of some experience we candidly believe that the bathing suit is the severest test the ordinary woman can undergo. The extraordinary woman who does not care a fig how she looks in or out of the water is not considered here. But the ordinary female, single or married, lean or plump, approaches the bathing suit with anxiety and apprehension. It is a magnificent test of physical beauty, for here neither pads, plumpers, rouge or powder will avail. Nature for one-quarter of an hour in woman's life reigns supreme, and to Nature she must look for those attractions, the study of which fill up a large portion of her existence. First there is the face. If Nature's coloring has successfully resisted the attacks of cosmetics, then the woman may approach the bath with ease and confidence. If not, the first dip in the first roller will remove the mask, and the change become so striking that one is inclined to believe the bather has swapped faces under the billow. Either she comes forth from the foam ruddy and sweet as a May morning, or wrinkled and bagged as the heroine of a broomstick. Then the neck and bust, the latter with no cotton stuff to lean upon, and trusting only to the proportions that Nature gave it. If the real thing, the rounded pillar of snow with cherries tipped, then indeed is the bathing dress an adornment beyond the greatest achievement of the milliner's art. Full and firm, with every graceful curve shown to perfection, the woman emerges from the sea like another Venus, and the male worshiper bows before the most exquisite development of the crowning beauty of the sex. The waist, free from the villainous corset, assumes the shape that Nature gave, and passing over the intervening features, we arrive at the leg. The possessor of the flabby calf scurries along the sands, and hastens to hide its ugly proportions. But the woman whose body is supported on ivory columns, firm, white and straight, terminating in the arched foot, the toes uncompressed from tight boots, the knee in such perfect line that nowhere from knee to ankle could a straw be inserted without touching the flesh, saunters along the beach and steps daintily into the ripples that seem to hasten to embrace such perfection. Truly, the bathing dress, after the first plunge, is a severe test, and few there are who can endure it and triumph.

Building a Church Board.

Louis Dameron applied for a pew in St. John's Methodist Episcopal church, the most fashionable edifice of that denomination in St. Louis; but his preliminary deposit of money was returned to him, with the information that the official Board declined to rent him a seat. It is said that the refusal was brought about by brothers Scroggs and Cupples, who are wealthy merchants and leading Methodists, and with whom Dameron, also a foremost Methodist, had once had a quarrel in a church affair. Last Sunday Dameron entered the church with a camp chair under his arm, marched up the centre aisle, and seated himself conspicuously near the chancel rail. As usher invited him to take a seat in one of the many empty pews, but he said that he would not use a seat which was not his own. He joined with great union in the exercises, singing quite loud, though tunelessly, and reading the responsive verses of Scripture in a strong, clear voice, but with all perfect decorum, and apparent fervor. His conduct, however, spoiled the services, for he commanded the attention of the whole congregation, and caused a great deal of tittering. He declares that he will be a regular attendant, and will sit on his chair until the officers rent him a pew.

Circumstances Alter Cases.

The proprietor of the hotel at Nice, where a gentleman and lady had taken rooms the preceding day, went up to the gentleman, and, evidently embarrassed, stammered: "I beg pardon, sir, but I am extremely embarrassed. My hotel is, as you know, one of the most respectable in Nice—" "Why, sir, I must tell you, the lady with whom you came last night came here last November with one gentleman, returned in December with another, and you must see that coming here so soon afterward with a third gentleman is rather—" "Oh! there is nothing wrong this time. I am her husband."

A Rock Island pastor has resigned because some of the members of his church persist in dancing.

The Object of This Association

Is to provide aid to its members, their heirs or dependents by a mutual association of persons in good health, in order to equalize the risk of accident or mortality, and to furnish the aid so rendered at the least possible cost to members. The plan of this Association combines the principles of the mutual life companies and co-operative or secret societies. It rejects the defective portions of each, such as the large premiums and expenses charged by the one and the ungraded assessments of the other.

In this Association each member pays the actual expense of his insurance for the time it is carried. A fund—the amount of one assessment from each member—will be carried, which fund will guarantee the payment of the full sum due from the number of members at the time of the death of a member.

Every dollar collected from the members for assessments will be paid to the beneficiaries. The general expense will be met by the membership fees and the fees for notifying and collecting assessments.

Any person between the ages of fifteen and sixty-four, inclusive, with proper qualifications, may become a member, and must make application on the printed form furnished by the Association, accompanied by the membership fee, a suitable medical examination, and be accepted by the Committee on Applications. The benefit will be the amount of $1000, $2000, $3000 or $5000 named in the Certificate of Membership, provided one assessment from all the members of the class paying the amount named, and further provided that members over fifty-four years of age, on joining, shall be limited to $3000 benefit.

Assessments shall be graded for the different ages of members as follows for each $1000 benefit:

Under 20 years, $0.70; Under 25 years, $2.10; 25 to 30 do, $3.00; 30 to 35 do, $3.50; 35 to 40 do, $4.00; 40 to 45 do, $4.50; 45 to 50 do, $5.00; 50 to 55 do, $5.50; 55 to 60 do, $6.00; 60 to 65 do, $6.50; 65 to 70 do, $7.00; Over 70 do, $7.50.

Class 1—Maximum Benefit, $5000. 2-5 Benefit $3000; 3-4 Benefit $2000; 1-4 Benefit $1000.

Membership Fee for $5000 or $3000 Benefit, $10; for $2000 Benefit, $5; for $1000 Benefit, $2.50. Persons desiring a larger benefit than $5000 can take membership in a second class.

The Membership Fee pays the expense of organizing the class and includes Medical, and a Medical Examination of the Association. The Assessment pays the benefit to the member's family.

The collection fee, which pays the expense of notifying and collecting the assessment will be 25 cents for $1000 Benefit and 50 cents for $2000 or $5000 Benefit.

Assessments will be payable at the Home Office of the Association within 30 days from date of notice. But no assessment shall be made when the amount of money in the Treasury is sufficient to pay one full benefit. Any surplus realized from an assessment shall be held to pay future death losses.

The amount due beneficiaries on all claims will be paid within 60 days after the receipt of the required proofs of death of a member, provided no question arises as to the rights of the claimant or the liability of the corporation under its certificate. There is no co-payment for delay or investigation, the benefit will be paid sooner.

The records of each class will be open to the inspection of members at all times during business hours. No portion of a class fund can be paid out except by vote of the Trustees, and on an order signed by the majority of the Trustees.

Members of this Association pay for death losses in proportion to their age; hence young and middle-aged persons feel no reluctance to join, and the Association will have no trouble whatever to keep its membership full. Whatever the age of a member, his share of the cost as compared with the cost to others is equally adjusted according to the death rate of his age. A suitable assessment, according to age, is one of the strong elements which insure a most essential and reciprocal mutual aid association.

The Certificate of membership are practically non-forfeitable, as each member receives his money's worth in the desired security or protection afforded from year to year.

There are no restrictions as to travel, but a change of residence to any point outside the territory in which the Association does business, without the consent of the Association, will cause a forfeiture of the Certificate.

Residence shall be made to the Secretary by P. O. order, cashier's check, or in a registered letter.

It being supposed by some that the cost of insurance in the Home Benefit Association is greater, as the assessment is larger, the following comparison is simply to show that where the assessment is smaller there is the Home Benefit Association will be increased correspondingly.

One assessment from 2000 persons (average age 35), at the rate for $2000 Benefit would realize as follows:

A. O. U. W. rate $1.00.....$2000.00
Knights of Honor, rate $1.00.....1500.00
Chesnut Friends, rate $1.00.....1500.00
Home Benefit Association, rate $2.50.....4000.00

One assessment from members in the Home Benefit Association would realize as follows: $1.00 for $1000 Benefit, or $2.00 for $2000 Benefit, or $5.00 for $5000 Benefit, per year. Send to Home office, or our agent in your city or town, for a blank application. The medical examination can be made by one of your "regular" local physicians unless we have an appointed medical examiner in your city or town. The fee for examination is included in the membership fee if made by a medical examiner of the Association.

Under this plan each one only pays for what he gets—the desired protection for the time being. If he fails to pay the next assessment, his membership and liability terminates; he only loses his rights and privileges in the Association, not one of the money he has paid in, as he has already received its value in the protection given while a member. On the same principal a man gets his house insured; at the expiration of his policy the property has not been destroyed, but he has had the full value of the money in the security afforded during the term of the policy. Under this system he pays as he goes; and only for what he gets, he does not advance large sums of money year after year. To procure protection in the distant future, with a chance of losing it by dishonest officials, depreciation of securities, or by other ways too frequent in these days. He retains the custody and use of his own money, paying it over only when needed, and then in a way so secure that he can find no difficulty in meeting it.

In providing for your own family, you help provide for others.

Instead of a few men carrying the risks of speculation, many combine to carry the risks of each other.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Sawdust seems almost as worthless a substance as one can think of, and yet it is an important article of trade in New York, as the following figures show: "In New York there are about 500 vendors of sawdust, having a capital of $200,000 invested, and doing a business amounting to more than $2,000,000 annually. Forty years ago the mills were glad to have sawdust carted away; twenty-five years ago it could be bought for 50 cents a load, but the price has increased, and now it brings $3 50 a load at the mill."

The New York Star professes to know that the true inwardness of the Morey letter is about to be divulged. It says: "There will doubtless be music in the air when the whole story, with its extraordinary details and surroundings, gets out. Meanwhile the people can afford to wait patiently and watch, for it seems likely to prove—when it does come—the liveliest kind of political circus seen in several years."

The furnaces of Eureka, Nev., give out-vile smelling fumes from the decomposition of base ores. The town is famous for those fumes, and its inhabitants have always regarded them as an evil. But now the Leader has the glorious audacity to assert that the fumes are not only harmless to health but positively salubrious. In a week or two the Eureka papers may be advocating the claims of Eureka as a summer resort.

A special dispatch to the New York Herald from San Francisco says, in reference to the acquittal of young Kallach: Mayor Kallach, the father of the acquitted young man, is undoubtedly popular with a certain class, and, as noses count at the ballot-box, his chances of re-election are better to-day than ever. There have been whisperings for a month past that a sister of De Young's would avenge her brother's death. The end is not yet.

The Gold Hill News uses these arguments to induce ladies to discard high heels: "A handsome foot, or in fact any kind of a foot, looks best, and practically is best, in its most natural position, and certainly every body knows that low-heeled shoes or boots are much the most comfortable. A lady's foot, of course, looks nice in a high-heeled shoe, but it is at the expense of the leg, which, after all, is the most interesting."

Ex-Attorney General Weeks, of Nova Scotia, remarked on a Halifax street that Judge James of the Supreme Court (who had just overruled some objections made by Weeks) was a fool. The Judge overheard and fined him $10 for contempt. Weeks refused to pay the fine, and went to jail. Now he is suing the Judge for false imprisonment.

This is the way government inspectors are paid in France, according to the Figure: A well-known French author, recently become a member of a Government Board of Inspectors, was asked how much he got for it. "That depends," said he; "when we go to the meetings we get nothing. When we don't we get a fine of five francs."

Lucy Stone is stalwart on the woman's rights question, and pitches in to Garfield's inaugural after this fashion: "Eloquent for the rights of 3,000,000 colored men. Dumb for the rights of 20,000,000 of women. God forgive him! That great hour, with a hundred years of national growth, closed a century of dishonor toward women."

It is somewhat strange that in reference to the killing of the Czar no editor has yet trotted out the quotation: "If the assassination could trammel up the consequences," "Un-easy lies the head that wears a crown" did noble service in the emergency.

Hiddenite is the name of a new gem found in North Carolina. It is of the emerald class, and is known to jewelers as lithia-emerald. The stone has a pure green tint and is very brilliant. Its value is equal to that of the diamond. Very few of the new gems have yet been found, the sole source of supply being a narrow vein in North Carolina.

The people of Indiana have again voted in favor of a constitutional amendment changing the month for holding general elections from October to November. The amendment was passed once before, but was nullified by a Democratic court last year.

Eureka has gone wild over the Melville Opera Company, or at least the reporters have. What they are pleased to refer to as "the costuming" seems to have produced the most telling effect on the Eurekaans.

The announcement comes from St. Petersburg that Nihilism is to be extirpated. That may prove to be a harder job than the clergymen have on their hands in their warfare against so-called original sin.

Sharon is the only U. S. Senator whose pay was ever docked on account of absence. He got no pay for the extra session of 1879, not showing himself in Washington during the entire session.

The Cincinnati Enquirer has invented the word "Mahoned" to describe the last defeat of the Democratic party. "Mahoned" may come into use in this country as "Boycotted" has in Ireland.

Cats have been spreading the small-pox in Sullivan county, New York, and owners of cats have been warned by the local authorities to keep them from roving about.

The streets of New York are in such a disgraceful condition of filth that the citizens have been holding mass meetings to protest against the neglect of the authorities.

Flowers of sulphur and glycerine, made into a paste, is recommended by a correspondent of the Scientific American as a certain remedy for scratches in horses.

Tennyson is said to have worked three days on six lines of "Come Into the Garden, Maud." People who "just toss off" verses will be surprised at this.

Victor Hugo's Religion and Religions is to appear this month in Paris. An English translation will be published directly afterwards.

The Spanish colony in Paris will shortly give a paper ball, at which all the ladies will wear paper dresses.

There is to be no extra session of Congress.

The largest purchase of hides in one day that ever took place in Custer City, Montana, was made by a merchant named Hubbell lately. Over 286 buffalo robes and 200 antelope and deer hides were bought.

The Pioche Record says that Greenwood, the man shot by Parish, in Lincoln county, is not dead, and is now considered out of danger. Clark, shot at the same time, is recovering, and it is thought that his wound will soon heal.

The trial of the Portuguese, Josef Ricardo de Silva, for the murder of his wife last January, has just been concluded in the Superior Court of Kern county, resulting in a verdict of "Guilty of murder in the first degree."

"Loco" horses are numerous in San Benito. The cause of this disease is said not to be a weed as generally supposed, but long, tape-like worms working into the brains of the horses.

LAW OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

Passed by the Tenth Session of the Legislature, 1881.

CHAP. XXVII.—An Act to restore lost records.

[Approved February 16, 1881.]
The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In all cases where the records of any judgments, or other records of any Court, of either general or limited jurisdiction in this State, have been lost or destroyed, and the said judgments have not expired by limitation, the same may be restored and replaced, and become the records of said Courts, in the manner prescribed in this Act.

SEC. 2. Where any record of any Court in this State has been lost, destroyed, or defaced so that its contents cannot be distinguished, the same may be restored by any party interested by making and filing an affidavit in said Court, whose record it is proposed to restore, and then said affidavit shall set forth the nature of the action, demand or claim upon which said lost, destroyed or defaced record of judgment was obtained, and the amount or character of judgment, and costs, as near as it can be ascertained, at the date of the entry of the same, the time and manner of its loss or destruction, and that said judgment has not been satisfied or paid, and that there is due and owing from the judgment debtor upon said judgment amount stated in the affidavit, and that the restoration of said record or records is necessary to secure the legal rights of said plaintiff.

SEC. 3. Upon the making and filing of the said affidavit, the Court shall thereupon issue a citation to all parties interested, notifying them to appear and show cause why the record referred to in said case should not be restored, and that in said notice or citation shall be set forth that the motion to restore said lost record is based upon affidavit on file in said Court, and if the hearing of said case is before the District Court, ten days notice shall be given to all parties interested, or if the same is before a Justice's Court, not less than five nor more than ten days' notice shall be required.

SEC. 4. When parties upon whom citation is required to be served reside outside of the county, but within this State, service shall be made in the same manner as is prescribed by law for the service of summons in civil actions in this State, and upon a citation issued from a Justice's Court under this Act, the service of the same upon parties residing out of the county, but within the State, shall be in the same manner as that required for the service of summons in civil actions in the District Courts, and where the parties upon whom service is required to be made reside out of this State, service shall be made by publication, in the same manner as is required for service of summons in civil cases in the Courts of this State.

SEC. 5. In all cases under this Act the parties interested shall, upon said motion, have an opportunity of appearing and using counter affidavits and contesting said application, and if it appear to the Court at the hearing that the record in said case is lost, destroyed or defaced, and what its contents were, it may then make, order, or cause to be made, a new roll or record, corresponding to the old one as near as can be done, and enter the same as of record in said Court, and the matter thus substituted will thereupon be received in all Courts and given in all respects the same effect as though it were the original record.

SEC. 6. Where any record of a judgment has been restored under this Act, said judgment shall not continue or extend beyond the limitation prescribed by law at the time the original judgment was restored was entered.

SEC. 7. This Act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage.

CHAP. XXVIII.—An Act to amend Section Five Hundred and Eighty-three of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in civil cases in the Courts of Justice in this State, and to repeal all other Acts in relation thereto," Approved March 8th, 1869.

[Approved February 16, 1881.]

The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

CHAP. XXIX.—An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act relating to elections," approved March 12th, 1873.

[Approved February 16, 1881.]

The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section Thirty-one of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section Thirty-one. The Board of County Commissioners, after making the abstract of votes, as provided in Section Thirty, shall cause their Clerk, by an order, made and entered in the minutes of their proceedings, to make a copy of said abstract, and forthwith transmit the same to the Secretary of State, as the seat of government. If the Board of County Commissioners should neglect or refuse to make the order, as required by this Act, they, and each of them, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, or more than five hundred dollars, each, and imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten, and not more than one hundred days, each, or both such fine and imprisonment, and shall be removed from office. And on the third Monday of December succeeding such election, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and the Associate Justices, or a majority thereof, shall meet at the office of the Secretary of State, and shall open and canvass the vote for Members of Congress, District and State officers; and the Governor shall grant a certificate of election to and commission the persons having the highest number of votes, and shall also issue proclamation, declaring the election of such persons. But in case there shall be no choice, by reason of any two or more persons having an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, the Senate and Assembly shall convene in the Assembly chamber, on the second Monday of February, at the next regular session of the Legislature after such election, and by joint vote of both Houses, elect one of said persons to fill said office, provided, when an election for Electors of President or Vice President of the United States takes place, the vote thereof shall be canvassed in the manner aforesaid, on the fourth Monday after such election is held.

SEC. 2. Section Thirty-five of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section Thirty-five. Whenever the returns are required to be transmitted by one Clerk of a Board of County Commissioners to the Secretary of State, it shall be the duty of such Clerk, if not otherwise directed by the Board of County Commissioners, to deliver the same to some Postmaster of the county, at the Postoffice, to be transmitted by mail, taking from such Postmaster, if it can be obtained, a certificate setting forth the time when such reports were deposited in the Postoffice, which certificate the Clerk shall file in his office. If the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners should neglect, or refuse to make out and transmit, the returns, or abstract, as required by this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars, or more than five hundred dollars, and imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month, or more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court, and shall be removed from office.

SEC. 3. All Acts, and parts of Acts, in so far as they conflict with the foregoing Act, are hereby repealed.

CHAP. XXX.—To the Honorable the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of the State of Nevada:

By order the following petition was adopted:

Your petitioners, the Board of County Commissioners of the county of Washoe, respectfully represent to your Honorable Bodies, that on the second day of February, 1881, the residents of the town of Frankton in this county, by flood, occasioned by the breaking of a reservoir, suffered loss of their dwellings, household goods, etc., and left them in a destitute condition for shelter and necessities, and, therefore, your petitioners ask that your Honorable Body make an appropriation of five thousand dollars for the relief of said sufferers, subject to the distribution by this Board and such other person as you may designate.

In the San Jose valley, New Mexico, for thirty miles or more the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad track lies along what is probably one of the longest lava flows in the world. There it has lain for ages, in some places piled up in masses of huge blocks to a height of twenty feet, and in others preserving the form it had when a molten stream, it poured down the valley, burying beneath its fiery mass every obstacle that lay within its course. The old crater whence this vast body of lava flowed is to be seen about eight miles to the north of Bluewater.

Says the Arizona Journal: It is the organized gang of desperadoes who ride into towns and terrorize the inhabitants that we are concerned about. They visit the ranches of the farmers and drive off their cattle; ride into churches and disperse the congregations; ride into saloons and shoot out the lights; and when remonstrated with, have the ready bullets as answer to all complaints.

An English paper tells of a gentleman, who, being asked to sing, produced from his pocket a little case which contained his music, photographed down to the size of note paper. He had duplicated copies of each song and handed one to the accompanist, singing from the other himself. The expedient saved all the bother of bringing a roll of music, unfolding it, collecting it again and so forth.

Another New Store.

He has been in Virginia for five years.

FERGUSON'S BRAVE BOY.

His Daring Efforts to Save His Father From Drowning.

The Truckee Republican of this morning contains the following additional particulars of the drowning of Ferguson and Childs in the Truckee: "Between four and five o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Childs fell into the waste gate of the dam on the right hand side of the river. Mr. Ferguson handed his pike pole to the drowning man, which he grasped, and by his struggles caused Mr. Ferguson to lose his footing, when he also slipped into the water. Mr. Ferguson's two little boys were playing on the bank of the river, and one of them says that the last he saw of his father he was trying to keep Childs away from him, and was attempting to swim to the shore. The elder boy, named David, seeing his father's danger, and though but eleven years of age, promptly sprang into the water for the purpose of rendering him assistance. The boy went in till the water went over his head. The current being swift and strong, took up the boy and carried him a considerable distance down the stream and finally brought him up against a large rock a few feet from the shore. He struggled a few moments and managed to grasp the limb of a bush growing near, and pulled himself ashore. Nothing daunted by the rough handling and narrow escape he already had, he immediately proceeded up the river, and procuring a large flat boat, started down the river in the same, accompanied by his little brother. He intended to run it over the dam, and endeavor to save his father by assisting him in the boat. His younger brother, seeing what the other intended to do, became frightened and commenced to scream, begging him not to run the boat over the dam. He complied with the request, and headed the boat for the opposite shore, which he reached safely. The two boys then hurried to give the alarm. The wonder of all the men who saw the place is how the boy managed to get across the river in the large and unwieldy flat boat. The current is very strong, and it is hard work for a man to manage a boat of any kind. It is well that the boy changed his mind about running the boat over the dam. Had he done so, instead of recording the death of two men by drowning, in all human probability we would have been called upon to record the death of two boys also. David Ferguson is entitled to the greatest credit for his heroic conduct. No tribute that the pen could pay would be sufficient to give him full credit. Anyone who is acquainted with the treacherous qualities of Truckee river can fully understand the risk which the young hero ran, and the danger he was in. Immediately after the alarm was given men hastened to the dam with boats, ropes and pike poles and commenced a thorough and systematic search for the bodies of the two men. All night long they kept large fires burning on the bank of the river to aid them in the search, but no trace of the bodies could be found. The search was kept up all day Thursday and yesterday. It was thought that the body of Mr. Ferguson was still in one of the eddies below the dam. Thursday afternoon a thorough search of all these was made, but without success. Large charges of giant powder were exploded both on the surface of the water as well as underneath, in the hope that it would raise the bodies if they were still there, but they failed to bring them. It is not at all probable that either of the bodies remain immediately below the dam, but both of them were undoubtedly carried down the stream. One of the boys says that he saw the body of Childs in the eddy below the dam, with the face down and a stick of wood grasped in his hands, and that it went down the river. He did not see his father's body. The water was shut off in the river by lowering the gates in the various dams between Camp 16 and Lake Tahoe, which greatly facilitates the search. The river is being thoroughly dredged, but up to the time of going to press, neither of the bodies had been found."

More Fish for Tahoe and Donner.

The California Fish Commissioners have lately put a quantity of young eastern salmon into Lakes Tahoe and Donner. The young salmon put into Lake Tahoe several years ago should have bred by this time, although only one mature fish has been caught of all the thousands put in. But perhaps this is not surprising, considering the large area of water for the fish to disperse in. Some days ago a fish was caught in the Truckee above the Lake Mills dam which was probably a young salmon. It was described as silvery and with dark spots on its sides. It weighed about a pound. The boy who caught it said it leaped several times out of the water when hooked. The fish was sold to the Arcade restaurant, and before the reporter heard of its capture it had been eaten up.

A Bonanza in Order.

Apocryphs of the Sutor Tunnel and Jacket connection, the Virginia Chronicle says: "The old Comstock lode was never in such splendid condition, so far as facilities for working is concerned, as at the present moment. The subterranean water-gauges may now open their fountains at almost any point from the Utah to the Belcher, and the aqueous fluid will be yanked out as fast as it comes in. Succor has come to us at last in our suffer affliction—perhaps it should be termed the sucker of the pumps. The next thing in order is a bonanza. Mrs. Bowers, it is said, has predicted that Superintendent Requa, of the Chollar and Potosi, will be on the Comstock before March shall have gone out. Perhaps when he comes here the Combination shaft pumps will start up and those long-expired prospecting drifts be run into Potosi's fifteen hundred feet of virgin ground. And then perhaps Potosi will get out of the 220 hole that she has been staggering around for so long. All along the line the revivifying effect of this Jacket and Sutor connection will soon be felt. Perhaps those who are packing up for Bodie and Arizona had better hang on for a week or two longer."

SUNDAYS.

Dr. Cummings, the once well-known London preacher, is now out of his mind.

Only ten per cent. of the population of Italy are to-day beggars, the percentage having greatly decreased during the last quarter of a century.

There have been received into Greenwood Cemetery the remains of 205,025 persons. It took New York City until 1831 to obtain that number of population.

The Rev. D. P. Mitchell of Topeka has been found guilty by his Methodist Conference of using the church money dishonestly to promote his candidacy for Congress.

It is a singular coincidence that the famous Italian discoverers of America came to the New World under foreign flags, and that all Americans to-day go to Europe under foreign flags.

Ten cows stood in a row in a stable at Plattville, Wis., with their heads fastened in the usual way between two stanchions. The floor gave way in the night, and in the morning they were found hanging dead.

White lying is pronounced generally by the Methodist, but it adds: "The puzzle of moralists has been to either justify or entirely condemn a class of such mendacities. For example, what shall we do with the hopeful word of a physician who has no hope?"

A Second Advent congregation at Greenwood, Kan., have lost confidence in their pastor because while publicly avowing a belief that the world would come to an end in 1881, he secretly took a note for five years on a loan of $1,000, and demanded twelve per cent. interest with ample security.

Wendell Phillips said in a public address, a few days before the assassination of the Czar: "I look at Russia, 4,000 miles away, and see what incubus is resting on her people. I only hope that somebody will lift it off her shoulders. If nothing will do it but the dagger, then welcome the dagger."

The laborers in St. Gothard tunnel have suffered from a mysterious disease that long baffled all physicians; but an Italian physician, Dr. Giaccone, has now traced it, with the aid of microscopic investigation, to parasitic worms that are engendered by the underground atmosphere, and lodge in the intestines of men working in it. A Swiss physician, Dr. Soderoggo, has supplemented this discovery by devising a method of expelling the parasites. The two doctors are hailed in Switzerland as benefactors of their race.

Why Don't They Do Many Other Things?

From a Carping Contemporary.

Why don't the girls of to-day become their own dressmakers? They would find an extraordinary stimulus and pleasure in the occupation, and there is nothing that would do more to take the nonsense out of them and put sense in its place. Paper patterns and the shortening of the skirts have made the task easy, and once undertaken it would not be given up, for it would be more interesting than fancy work.

Young women whose parents occupy high position in England frequently do all their own sewing in order to make their allowance—which ranges from $50 to $250 per annum—do its work. They may have one dress in a season made by a dressmaker, not more, and this will probably be superintended by a dressmaker in the house, who occupies her time in cutting and fitting, while the young lady herself, with perhaps the help of a family seamstress, does the sewing.

Too Sensitive.

A gentleman who owns a sheep ranch in Western Texas and is very wealthy, went to Galveston with a friend intending to remain over and see Mardi-Gras. On Sunday he and his friend went to church. The clergyman gave out his text, "A good shepherd will not leave his sheep." The sheep man from Western Texas nudged his companion and whispered: "Let's go. Bill; he is hitting at us," and out they went. When they paid their bill at the hotel, they told the clerk that was not the way to build up the wool interests of Texas nor to secure deep water on Galveston bar.

On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a milky hue, again changing to a yellow and turbid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness.
